

History Walk
Mt. Washington
Historical Society

Take a stroll and meet neighbors from the past. Soldiers, merchants, hoteliers, and a future Supreme Court Justice are some of the people you'll encounter who have called this town their home. Stand on the sites where they lived and worked. Experience what they confronted when the American Civil War showed up on their doorstep. Learn aspects of Mt. Washington's transition from bustling antebellum stagecoach town to sleepy village and into today's suburban refuge, through 10 interpretive historical markers placed throughout downtown.
